LOCAL MATTERS.

REUNION OF THE STONEWALL BRIGADE IN

RICHMOND .- Mayor Keiley his received the to an unreasonable extent. following letter from a former commander of this old brigade. Mr. James Lyons has tendered the use of the Monumental Hotel, on Ninth street; and Mr. Keilev has written to General Walker, in answer to his letter, telling him that his old soldiers will certainly be entertained in Riebmond. Blankets and rations are to be prepared for these soldiers, and they will be received from all who can sfford to give as soon as some one of the former members of the brigade is appointed for that duty.

"NEWBERN, VA., September 28, 1875. Hon. A. M. Keiley, Mayor of Richmond

"Dear Sir,- It is proposed to have a reunion of the Stonewall brigade at Richmond on occasion of the inauguration of Foley's statue of Jackson. As many members of the old brigade are very poor, and some of them maimed and without means to pay their own expenses, it is proposed to provide for heir expenses, so that it will cost them no-

"Arrangements will be made with the railroads to transfer them free, and if it could be arranged by the city of Richmond to provide barracks and soldiers' fare for such as are unable to pay their bills at the hotels it will enable many to attend who desire to pay a tribute to the memory of their illustrious commander, and who by their past services to our old Commonwealth have entitled themselves to this recognition of their services at the hands of the city of Richmond.

"Hoping to hear from you at an early day, I remain, yours very truly, "JAMES A. WALKER,

' late Commander of Stonewall Brigade,"

J. A. EARLY, President of the Association of the Army of Northern Virginia. September 30, 1875.

RICHMOND, VA., September 30, 1875. Editors Dispatch: Gentlemen,—The importance of the subject to all Virginians worthy the name is a sufficient excuse for calling attention to the subject of the in scription to be placed on the front of the pe destal of the statue of Stonewall Jackson. The decision of the commissioners to whom this matter has been referred by the Legislature has not as yet been made public, nor do we know that a decision has been reached. We venture, therefore, to suggest that the most fitting testimonial by Virginia of admiration and affection for her heroic son is to recite the story of his name.

It has been suggested that to have on the cap of the pedestal in large letters the words STONEWALL JACKSON, and on the front face of the pedestal the simple inscription-"LOOK! THERE IS JACKSON STANDING LIKE A STONE WALL!"

Gen. Bee at the First Battle of Manassaswould transmit to posterity such an account of his heroic devotion to his country as would outlast the bronze itself. It pictures vividly the sbock of battle and the triumph of the soldier, and will teach the future more than breathes in bronze. The heroic statue should have a hero's se ntiment, and the language of the devoted Bee.

as he fell mortally wounded, is a heroic tri bute such as is worthy the acceptation by the people for whom both died. Undoubtedly the fact that the statue is the gift of subjects of Great Britain should be commemorated by a suitable in eription, but such inscription should not be placed in as the hero it honors. MANCHESTER NEWS.
